

Species and Life Stages	Oct	Nov	Dec	Jan	Feb	Mar	Apr	May	Jun	Jul	Aug	Sep
Chinook salmon
Juveniles
Migratory adults (a)
Steelhead
Juveniles (b)
Migratory adults

(a) the primary migration period for adult chinook salmon in the Guadalupe River usually occurs after October 15, but is dependent on flow and water temperature conditions.

(b) it has not been determined whether juvenile steelhead rear yearw round in the Guadalupe River.

■ Period with greatest likely potential occurrence

■ Period of potential occurrence

Source: Shapovalov and Taft 1954, White 1993, Moyle 1976.

Figure 4.6-1. Approximate Temporal Occurrence of Chinook Salmon and Steelhead Trout in the Guadalupe River